The Indiana Conference Education calendar for 2011-2012 school year as voted by the K-12 Board of Education on March 8, 2011.
(Revised 3-23-2011)
Subject to revisions and corrections as approved by the Office of Education.

Snow Days: Three (3) snow days are included in the school calendar. These snow days and one Professional Development Day, January 30; are included in the calendar, for a total of 184 days. If the snow days are not used, snow flex days may be taken. Clear dates to be taken with your local board and the Education Superintendent. If more snow days are taken, additional instructional days must be added to the end of the school year or vacations shortened to ensure students benefit from 180 days of instruction.

National Holidays: Conference schools should not be in session on national holidays identified on this calendar unless public schools in their area are using those days as emergency snow make up days.

Minimum School Day: Many working parents find minimum school days to be a nuisance. For this reason, only five minimum days are officially sanctioned by the Office of Education:

- October 26 & 27 - Fall Parent-Teacher Conferences
- November 23 - Start of Thanksgiving Break
- Two Minimum Days for Spring Parent Teacher Conferences (if needed)

School Day: A normal school day shall consist of a minimum of 6.5 hours including lunch period. A minimum school day shall consist of 3.5 hours of instruction, excluding lunch period. Typical school hours: 8 am to 3 pm; 8:15 am to 3:15 pm; 8:30 am to 3:30 pm.

The Indiana Conference Office of Education endeavors to coordinate a school system in which all locations follow the same calendar. Any deviations from this calendar must be approved by the Superintendent of Education and your local board, before you release your calendar to the public. Indiana law requires that students receive 180 days of instruction. Staff Development Days, Registration Days & school social events may not be counted as school days. Sunday field trips may be counted as school days if specific criteria are met, please check with the Conference Superintendent.
